REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The students and staff at Whittemore Park have much to celebrate. We have shown improvements in academics at all grade levels. Our efforts have focused on improving achievement for all students with emphasis on improving literacy and numeracy levels across the curriculum. Students at Whittemore Park were recognized for many accomplishments during the past year. One student was recognized as a Duke TIP Scholar. Nine students were recognized as South Carolina Junior Scholars and eleven students were recognized as Explore Scholars. Ten students participated in the Jackson Scholar Mentor Program on the campus of Coastal Carolina University and sixteen students participated in Educational Talent Search on the campus of Horry Georgetown Technical College. Over 125 students were inducted into the National Junior Beta Club. Our band and chorus departments received ratings of Excellent in competitions while 10 students were named All-County Chorus, four students were named all County Band and two students were named All-Region Band. Our school received a Next Generation Learning Challenge Grant from the Gates Foundation which will provide digital content, college and career readiness and leadership focus to our classrooms. Our students and staff participated in a record number of service learning projects that assisted organizations representing our community, our state, our nation, and our world. Our staff members continued to grow professionally by participating in continuous professional development and graduate coursework. Jennifer Janes was selected as Teacher of the Year. Thanks to the generous support of our community, PTO and parents, we were able to provide recognition items for our students at quarterly awards programs. Our staff, PTO, School Improvement Council and administration will remain dedicated to our goal of innovation and excellence. Judy Beard, Principal
Billie Johnson, School Improvement Council Chairman
